

Preferred College Partners Graduate School Offering Details

Carnegie Mellon University's (CMU) Heinz College of Information Systems and Public Policy is offering scholarships equal to 30% of tuition per semester to Pittsburgh Promise Alumni who apply and enroll in one of its professional master's programs. These include nationally-ranked programs in public policy, information technology, health care, cybersecurity, and arts & entertainment.

Chatham University is offering scholarships equal to 20% of tuition per semester to Pittsburgh Promise Alumni. The scholarship does not extend to students enrolling in the University's Entry-Level Doctor of Occupational Therapy, Doctor of Physical Therapy, Master of Physician Assistant Studies, Doctor of Psychology in Counseling Psychology, Master of Science in Nursing {MSN}, RN to MSN, RN to BSN, Master of Science in Athletic Training, Integrated Degrees, or graduate certificate programs.

Duquesne University is offering a 30% tuition scholarship per semester to Promise alumni to pursue graduate degrees in more than 25 graduate programs in business, education, liberal arts and environmental sciences. Additional information can be found at <http://duq.edu/pghpromisealum>.

La Roche University is offering a 20% tuition scholarship per semester to Promise Alumni to pursue on-ground graduate degree programs. Eligible programs include: M.S. Accounting, M.S. Human Resources Management, M.S. Information Systems, M.S. Nursing, and M.Ed. Special Education.

Point Park University is offering scholarships equal to 30% of tuition per semester to Pittsburgh Promise Alumni who apply and enroll in one of its on-ground master's programs, which provide practical, career-oriented education in its downtown location.

For more detailed information on course offerings, available programs, and additional discounts, please reach the schools directly.