

Pittsburgh Promise Ambassadors: Position Description

What is a Pittsburgh Promise Ambassador?

---

Promise Ambassadors are 11th and 12th grade students who work to promote post-secondary access, become lead advocates for The Pittsburgh Promise, and promote Promise-Readiness. Ambassadors work at The Pittsburgh Promise office, within their own schools, and across Pittsburgh's communities. Promise Ambassadors receive training designed to help them communicate to a variety of audiences and develop their professional skills. This is a paid position ($10 per hr.).

Duties:

---

- Raise awareness among students about the opportunity to receive a Promise Scholarship
- Attend college/trade school tours and share this information with peers
- Support seniors in completing The Promise scholarship application online
- Inform students about post-secondary options
- Inform students about FASFA and PHEAA
- Conduct Promise presentations in schools and at community events
- Represent The Pittsburgh Promise in the community
- Help to recruit and train Promise Ambassadors for the following year

Requirements:

---

- Participate in mandatory summer training, once per week, throughout the summer
- Work a minimum of 10 hours per month during the school year
- Promote The Promise at school by staffing information tables a minimum of twice per month during lunch
- Attend meetings held bi-monthly at The Promise office
- Volunteer at Promise events at school and throughout the community
- Host a Promise Day or Promise Week at school to promote awareness to younger grades

Time Line of events:

---

- Summer: Attend mandatory summer training sessions once per week at The Promise office and elsewhere
- Summer/Fall/Winter: Attend college/trade school tours at each Preferred College Partner campus
- All School Year: Assist seniors with accessing and completing The Promise application
- All School Year: Promote FAFSA and PHEAA completion among the senior class
- All School Year: Plan for, schedule, and oversee a Promise Day at school
- All School Year: Set up table during lunch to promote The Promise and assist seniors with post-secondary planning
- Spring: Begin to recruit new Promise Ambassadors for the upcoming school year
- Late Spring/Summer: End of year wrap up and reflection

Questions? Contact Danny Jackson at The Pittsburgh Promise: 412-745-2224 or danny@pittsburghpromise.org